On a more personal note, you may wish to mention to the President that the participation of Jeff Carter in the delegation to the Kenyatta funeral has touched the Kenyans deeply. [REDACTED] a Kikuyu leader and close to the Kenyatta family, expressed his feelings to me yesterday. He pointed out that it is traditional in Kenya to send a son to another man's household to demonstrate deep trust and affection. Thus Jeff Carter's visit here was read by the Kenyans as being the most personal sign possible by the President that he trusted the Kenyans completely and wanted to show his own deepest affection for the Kenyatta family and the nation in a time of sorrow.

Good luck to you in your efforts to build the Organization for the future. Please give my regards to [REDACTED] who 25X1A also an old Africa hand.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR: DCI

[REDACTED] in a just-arrived [REDACTED] letter from Nairobi, conveys a message which you may wish to pass on to the President on the 18th.
